Abstract:

This paper will introduce a new concept of political ethic of Pancasila. The ethic is an accumulative values of ethic which is the ethical ground of political behaviors of powers. The political ethic of Pancasila has five grounds are theological, humanistic, ontological, democratic, and the just ethic. According to Pancasila Ethic that there is no political behaviors out the God. Everything is in the God. Therefore of course there is no secular behavior. Political ethic of Pancasila has to base all behaviors of political action. The political behavior must avoid the violence and anarchy. And also political ethics have to develop the democratic culture in Indonesia. The political ethic of Pancasila is not just a concept only but also the real implementation.
